

Samoa's Deputy PM says PACER Plus is good for Pacific

- Print
- Email

Updated June 29, 2010 17:05:04

Samoa's Deputy Prime Minister, Misa Telefoni Retzlaff, says Australia and New Zealand have been attacked for all the wrong reasons over their attempts to negotiate the PACER Plus trade agreement with Pacific Islands. Mr Telefoni told a conference in Sydney recently that trade and aid should work together. He says globalisation is good for the Pacific Islands and the Pacific countries can make PACER Plus work for them.

Presenter: Jemima Garrett

Speaker: Samoa's Deputy Prime Minister, Misa Telefoni Retzlaff

- Listen:
- Windows Media